

Address: 100 Daly Avenue

Legal Description: Part of Lot 16, Plan 74

Designation By-law: 153-87

By-Law Designation Date: August 17, 1987

Date of Construction: 1896

Architectural Style: Queen Anne

Architectural Description: two storey orange-red brick; hip roof with a centre flat section; there are two, two storey bays on either side of the house with gable roofs; first floor; the left rectangular projecting bay is set at a forty-five degree angle to the flat centre section; in the centre of the bay is a large semi-circular window with two panes in the top section which are stained glass and two in the bottom sash; the window has limestone voussoirs with a centre key stone; a one over one paned rectangular window is at the right side of the bay; the door has a segmentally arched transom; the larger bay with angled sides has a centre window that is the same as in the left bay except the bottom sash is one window; the windows in the angled sides are one pane over one pane rectangular windows; the porch is fairly small but quite ornate; the gable roof has a longer curved slope on the left than on the right; it has a drop finial in the centre of the peak of the roof the balusters under the porch roof rest on curved pieces of wood supported by turned porch posts; the porch railing has a pattern of small and larger rectangles; second floor; there is a small balcony under the centre window; the balcony is supported by ornate brackets with drop finials at the front corners; the window is segmentally arched with two panes in the upper and lower sash; with limestone voussoirs and a key stone arch; the gable roof above the bay has a decorative shingle wall and a diamond shaped window in the gable; the window on the right side is the same as in the first floor; there is a rectangle of decorative brick work on the left of the small window above the door is semicircular with multiple panes and limestone voussoirs; the side windows in the right hand bay are one over one segmentally arched ; the centre window is segmentally arched with two panes in the upper sash and one pane in the lower sash there are limestone voussoirs as well; below this window is the name of the house Dun-Edin; there are two decorative angle brackets over each of the side windows; the gable roof above the bay has a decorative shingle wall and a segmentally arched window with small panes around the outside.

The building was designed by a local architect R. Banks Barber.