

Address: 129 Brunswick Street, Stratford

Legal Description: Lt 16, West Part of Lt 21, Plan 27

Designation By-law: 192-2006

By-law Designation Date: December 11, 2006

Date of Construction: 1880

Architectural Style: Gothic Revival

Architectural Description: one and half storey yellow brick ell shaped house; second storey has a rectangular window in a slightly segmented opening; a brick arch with centre grey keystone and a grey voussoir at the edge of each arch, two windows under the gable at the left are the same as are the three windows in the bay window on the first floor at the left; entrance door has a rectangular transom with ruby glass and narrow side lights; two more windows to the right of the door; porch extends from the bay window to the right corner of house; porch roof is supported by slender turned posts

The house was built by John Way who was a shoemaker and a businessman. The second owner was William Madge, who worked at the McLagan Furniture Company.