

Address: 142 Ontario Street

Legal Description:

Designation By-law: 146-88

By-Law Designation Date: July 25, 1988

Date of Construction: 1914

Architectural Style: Gothic Revival

Architectural Description: reddish brown brick; shallow gable roof; large centre section with multi-paned large pointed window above solid brick wall; the window has multiple rows of brick arches above the window and the doors; square block section on either end with an entrance door in each section; buttresses at the corners capped by copper roofs; right side; buttresses between the multi-paned gothic windows; to the right of the square section is a brick projection section with a gable copper roof and a gothic window; a lower square brick section is to the right of this in front of another taller gabled section with a large pointed gothic window.

The congregation dates back to 1844 when they worshiped in a log church. The original church was built in 1873 and the Sunday school addition in 1906-1907. It survived the fire by a lightning strike that struck the steeple and burned the sanctuary. In 1913.