

Address: 170 Douglas Street

Legal Description: Part Lot 475, Plan 20 designated as Part 1 on 44R-1382

Designation By-law: 94-98

By-Law Designation Date: July 27, 1998

Date of Construction: 1927

Architectural Style: Jacobethan Revival

Architectural Description: two storey grey and brown stone and stucco exterior; hip and gable roofs; first floor; is stone; left side which is slightly recessed from the front of the house has a steeply pitched curved roof with a three paned rectangular window with slightly segmentally arched stone voussoirs; there is a three sided bay window with a rectangular window on each side and three windows in the centre section; the windows have many small panes; the roofs over the bay are copper; the entrance is a wooden door with an arch surrounded by a limestone arched frame and alternating grey and brown stone voussoirs; the right hand bay is identical to the left one; second floor; is stucco with stone trim at the corners; the windows on the left and right above the bay windows are three part rectangular casement windows with small leaded glass panes; the window above the door is rectangular with stone trim around it; there is a curved roof above this window; there is a narrow closed window in each gable.