

Address: 224 Wellington Street, Stratford

Legal Description: South Pt of Lt 287, Plan 20

Designation By-law: 195-2006

By-Law Designation Date: December 11, 2006

Date of Construction: 1887

Architectural Style: Ontario Cottage

Architectural Description: One storey, modest buff brick house featuring a front-facing gable with small semi-elliptical wooden shutter. House has four pane, segmental arched windows crested by voussoir, brick soldier course. Front entranceway has ruby glass transom. There are brick pilasters as well as iron cresting at peak of roof.

House was built in 1887 for John Edwards, a boilermaker for the Grand Trunk Railway who lived in the house until 1905. In 1913, Neil Dow purchased the house, which was inhabited by the Dow family until 1965.