

Address: 227 Cambria Street

Legal Description: Part of Lots 2 and 3, Plan 39

Designation By-law: 113-95

By-Law Designation Date: August 14, 1995

Date of Construction: 1873-1874

Architectural Style: Gothic Revival

Architectural Description: two storey yellow brick with gable roof and three Gothic Revival gables that have elaborate barge board trim with finials at the peak of the each roof; first floor; centre projection with large brick arch with door and segmentally arched side lights; transom has three window; large segmentally arched window with brick voussoirs and six panes on either side of entrance; the outline of a former verandah roof for a porch that was across the front of the house can be seen; second floor two narrow segmentally arched three paned windows are in the centre gable; a eight paned segmentally arched window is in each of the other gables

James MacDonald, one of the founders of the MacDonald Threshing Company lived in this house..