

Address: 52 Devon Street

Legal Description: Part Lot 6, Plan 57

Designation By-law: 154-87

By-Law Designation Date: August 17, 1987

Date of Construction: 1857

Architectural Style: Georgian/Gothic Revival

Architectural Description: rectangular two storey red brick Georgian with a store and half red brick Gothic Revival addition built in 1866 to the left side; left side first floor; large rectangular three section window with multi panes and narrow shutters; second floor; two narrow pointed Gothic style windows in the peak of the roof; the edges of the gables are trimmed with decorative drop finials; right side Georgian portion; first floor; entrance door with straight transom and side lights on the left; two rectangular replacement windows six over six panes on the right hand side; second floor; three rectangular replacement windows six over six panes; all windows have narrow shutters .

The house was built for Reed Burritt, Perth County's first permanent judge.